KEYSTONE

DEDICATE IT TO

MRS. DOLORES LIENESCH

The 1960 Keystone is sincerely dedicated to Mrs. Dolores Lienesch, a member of the HTHS faculty and advisor for the Keystone from 1955-1959, and English Instructor the second semester of the 1959-1960 school year. For her faithful work at HTHS, we dedicate this Keystone.

WALKS OF LIFE AT

HARRISBURG HIGH

SAUNTERING TO ACTIVITIES . . .

WE PAUSE

We pause to see how many autographs we can get in one day. "D-Day," distribution day, finds the stairs jammed with kids, yearbooks, pens, and shouted greetings of, "Hey, sign my Keystone!"

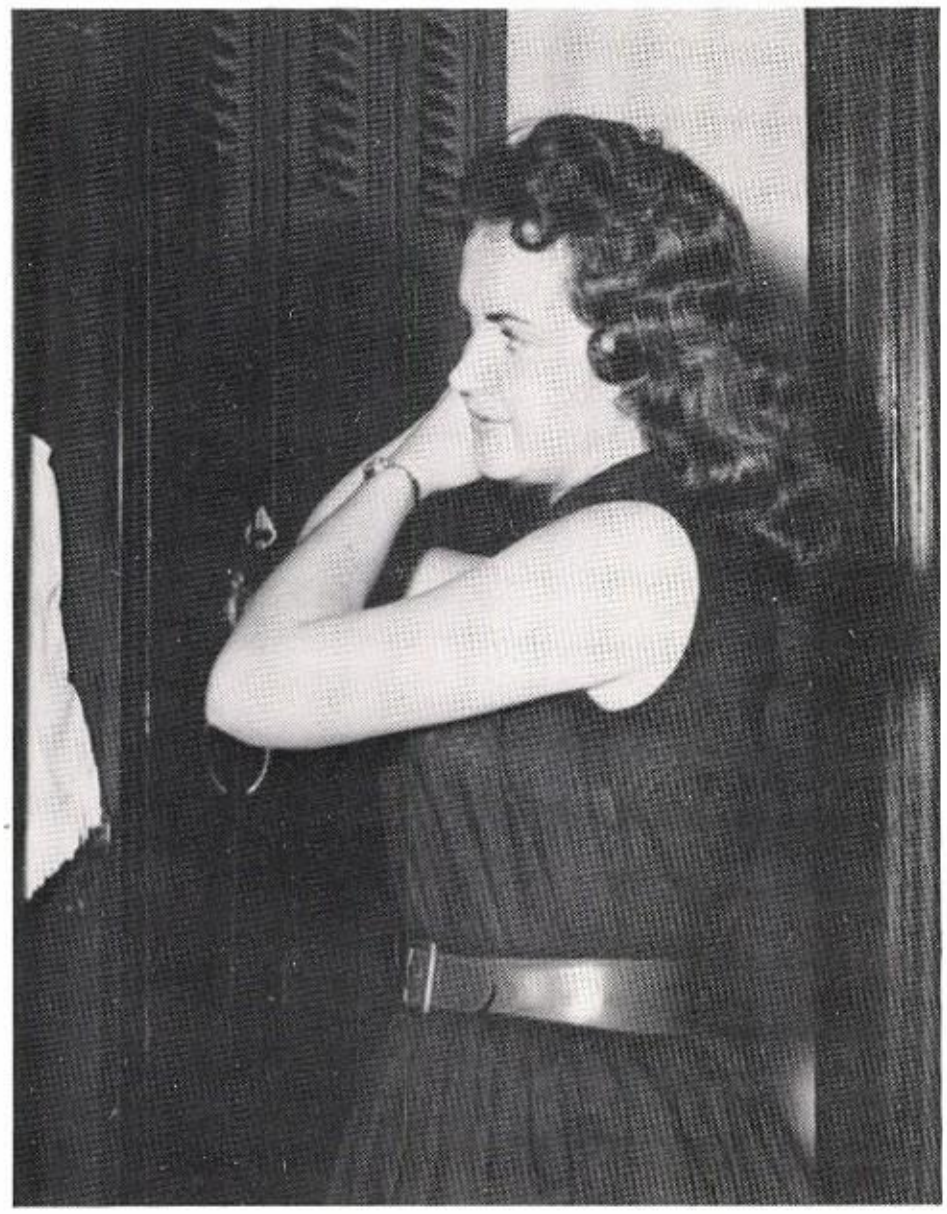
After the "new" wears off our Keystones, we return to the daily routine of school. Although we are very busy, usually we do have time for relaxing, and we use our time between class periods to the best advantage.

Just plain loafing.

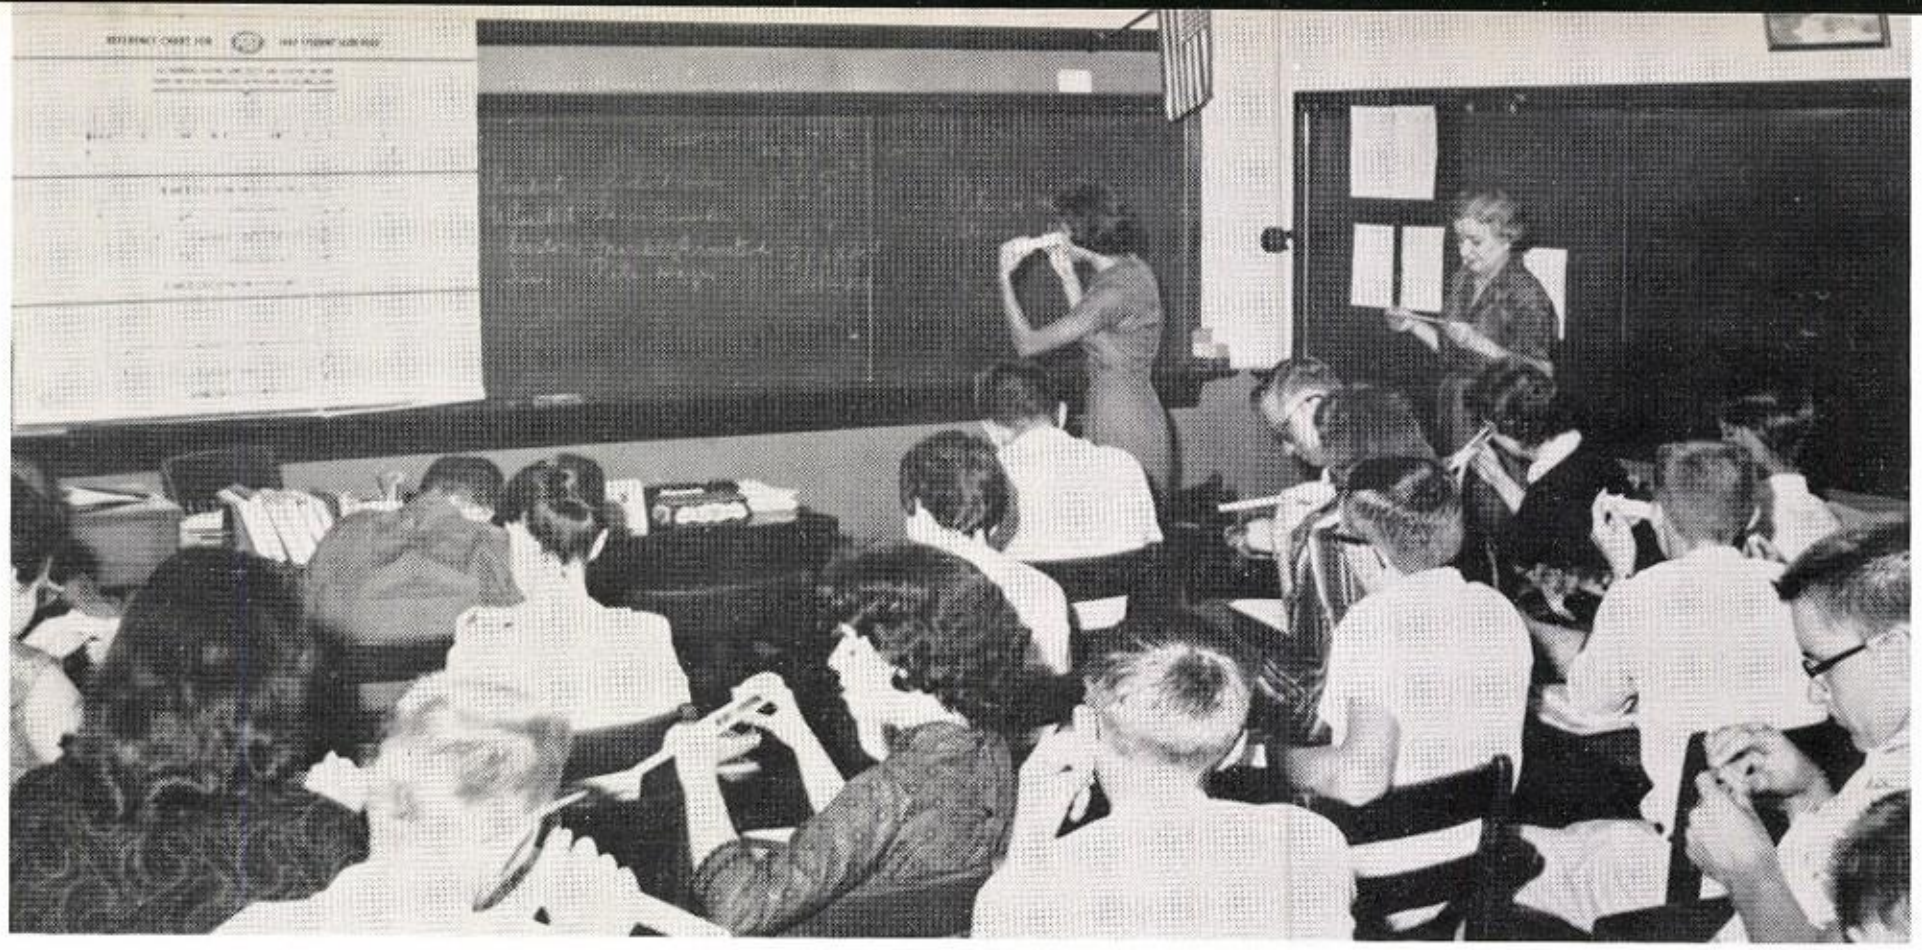
Taking a break between classes are Allen Kladiva and Sandy Webb.

THEN ON OUR WAY

A mirror is a nice companion to have, especially between classes.



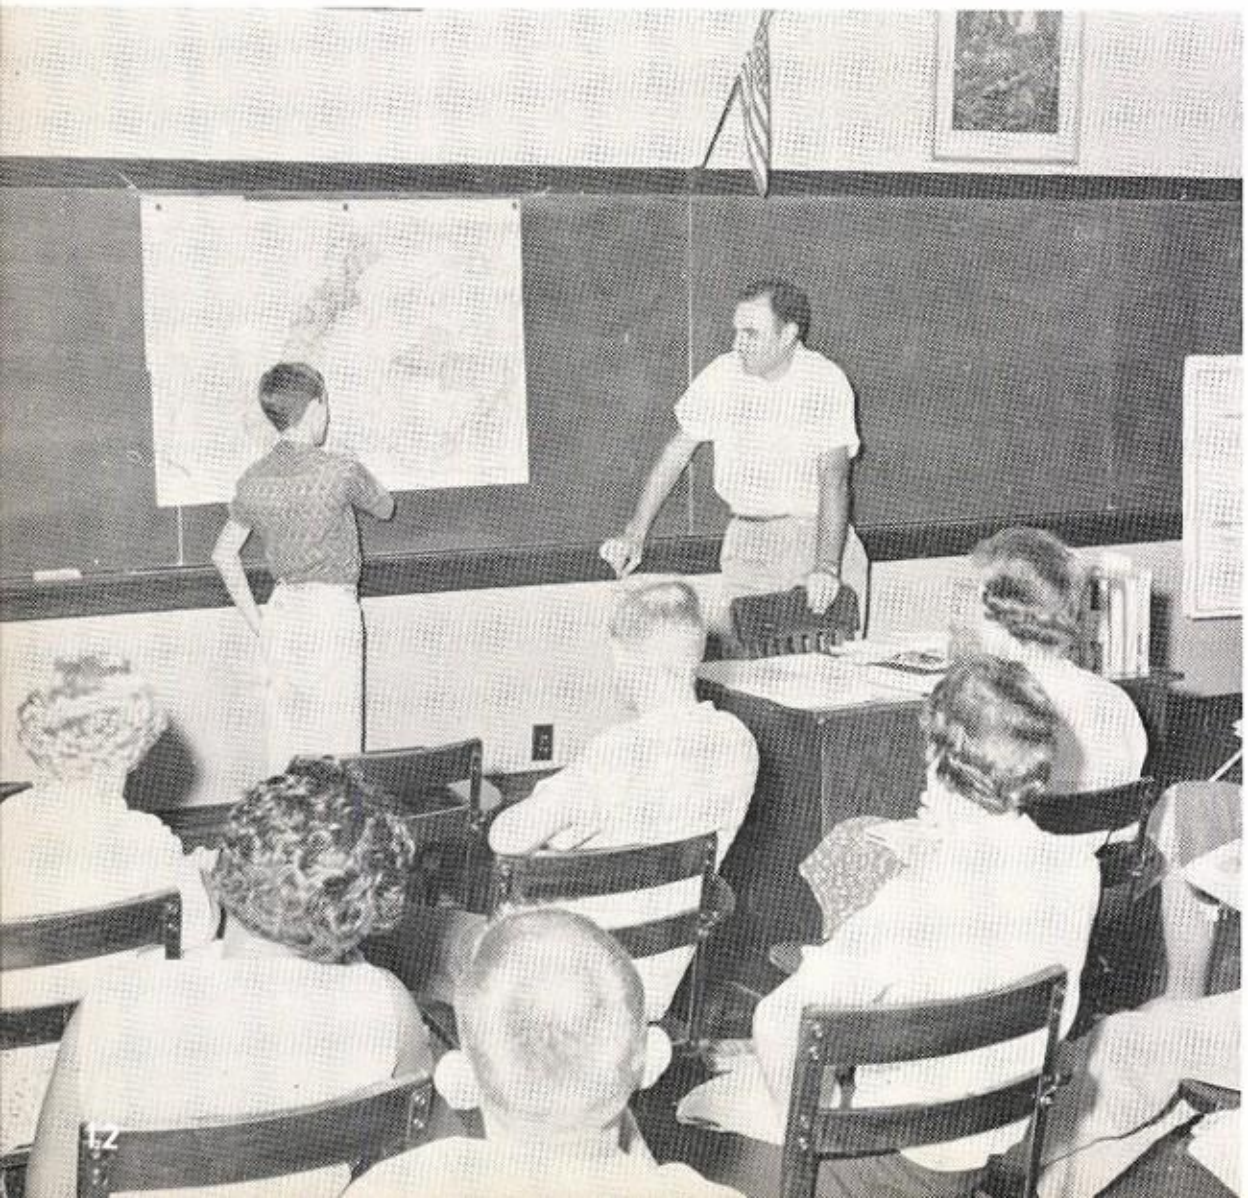
Reading the Kuder Preference Test aids one in choosing a suitable vocation.



Studying the slide rule will enable these students to solve many advanced math problems.

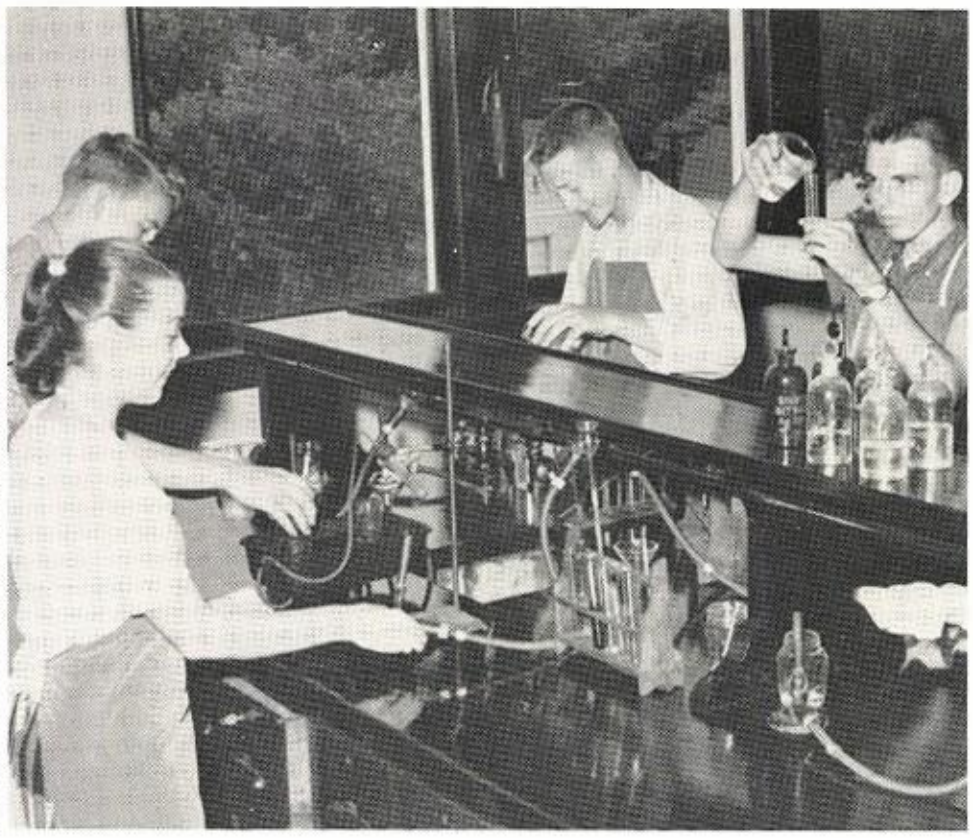
TILL STUDIES SLOW OUR PACE

He has the world at his fingertips.



There comes a time in the day of every normal teenager when he must slow his pace to study. We must strive to gain a good education. We have the opportunity. Why pass it up? In the future we will have the responsibility of being enlightened, respectable, and loyal American citizens.

The business that gets these hard-working students will be very lucky.



This is more fun than Junior's chemistry set.

SHHHHHHH

But, Mr. Cothran, it sounded all right to me.

Time to relax from house cleaning.

TAKING STEPS

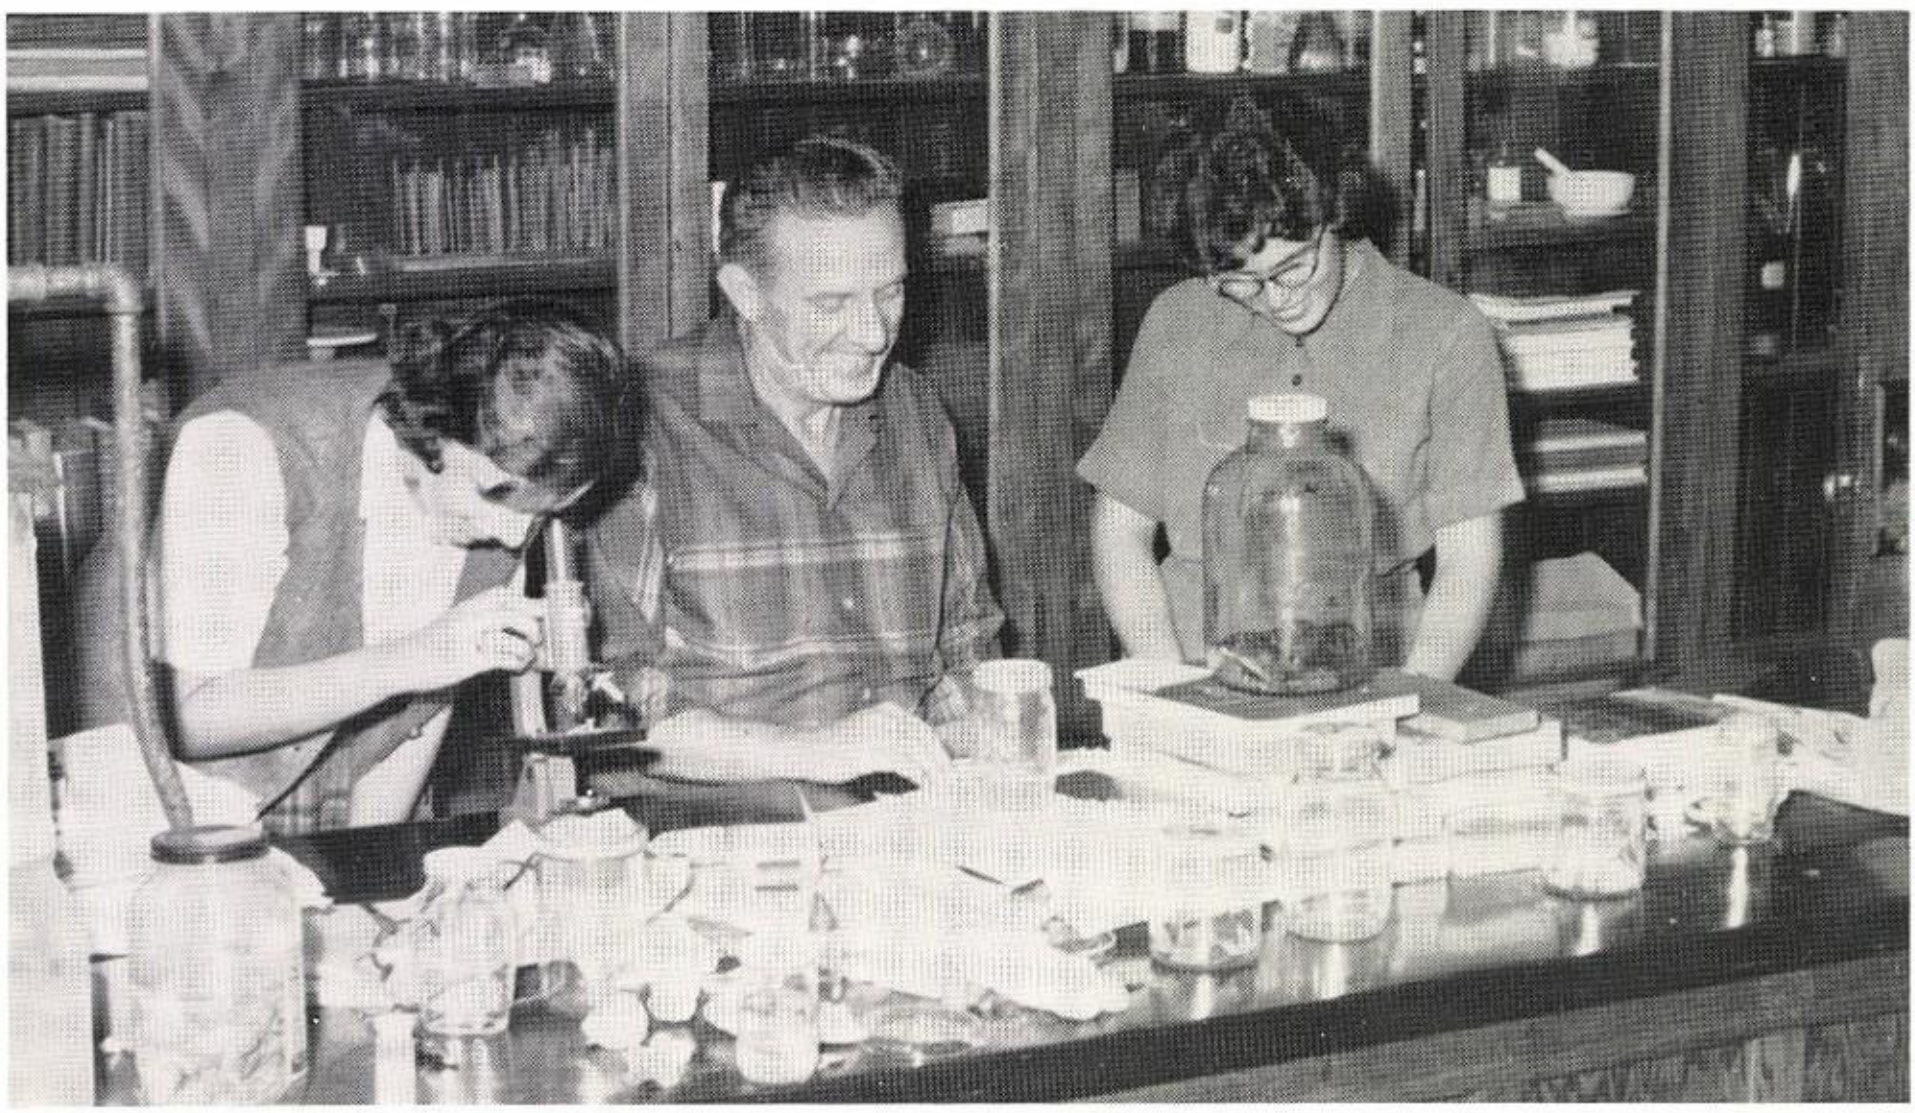
Fingers are flying like mad — only two minutes to go.

Learning through experience are Frankie Banks and Darrell Cavender.

Could these be future Michelangelos?

TOWARD KNOWLEDGE

Looks like fun — if you like snakes (Ugh)!



Relaxing on the beautiful HTHS campus are these friendly sophomores.

Droopy-eyed girls slung pillows at the slumber parties that often followed games. Elsewhere boys "made like" card sharks at stag parties.

Getting away from the hustle and bustle of school, boys and girls took to the road on hikes where they "lived it up" by joking, talking, and picnicking.

Favorite TV shows preceded and followed homework. Students watched everything from the side-splitting "Henessy" to the suspenseful "The Untouchables."

GROWING UP

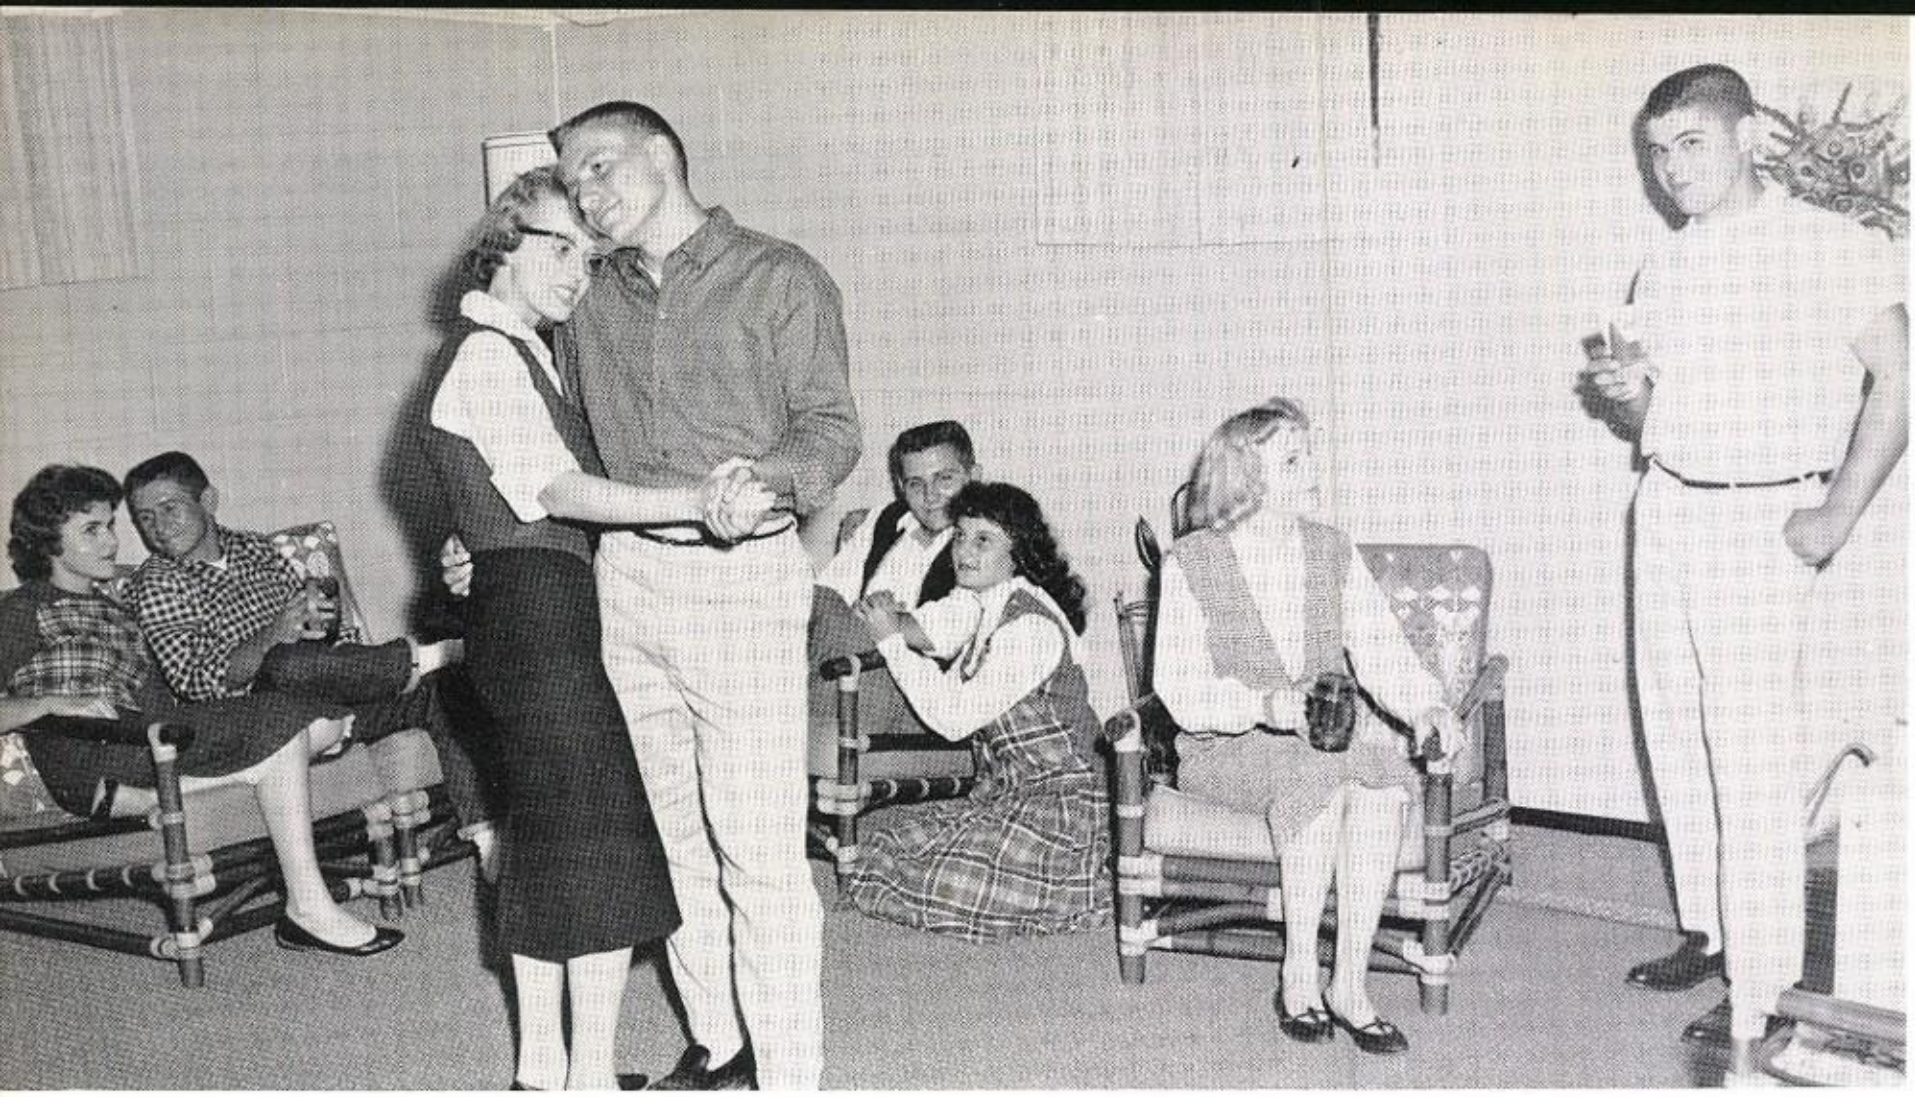
Posing for the camera are these Keystone ad salesmen after they put on an unusual assembly program for the student body which started the sales campaign for the 1960 KEYSTONE.

These Student Council leaders of today may well be the leaders of our government tomorrow.

IS FUN

A stitch in time saves nine.

This twirling duo took top honors at State Contest.



Why so glum, chum? All the world loves a lover!

COMING OUT INTO

Love makes the world go 'round.

Having a wonderful time at the annual Christmas Dance are Ann Kuppart, Larry Wise, Charlene Boone and Richard Byrd.

TEEN SOCIETY

Karan and John found that a coke is much sweeter when they used two straws.

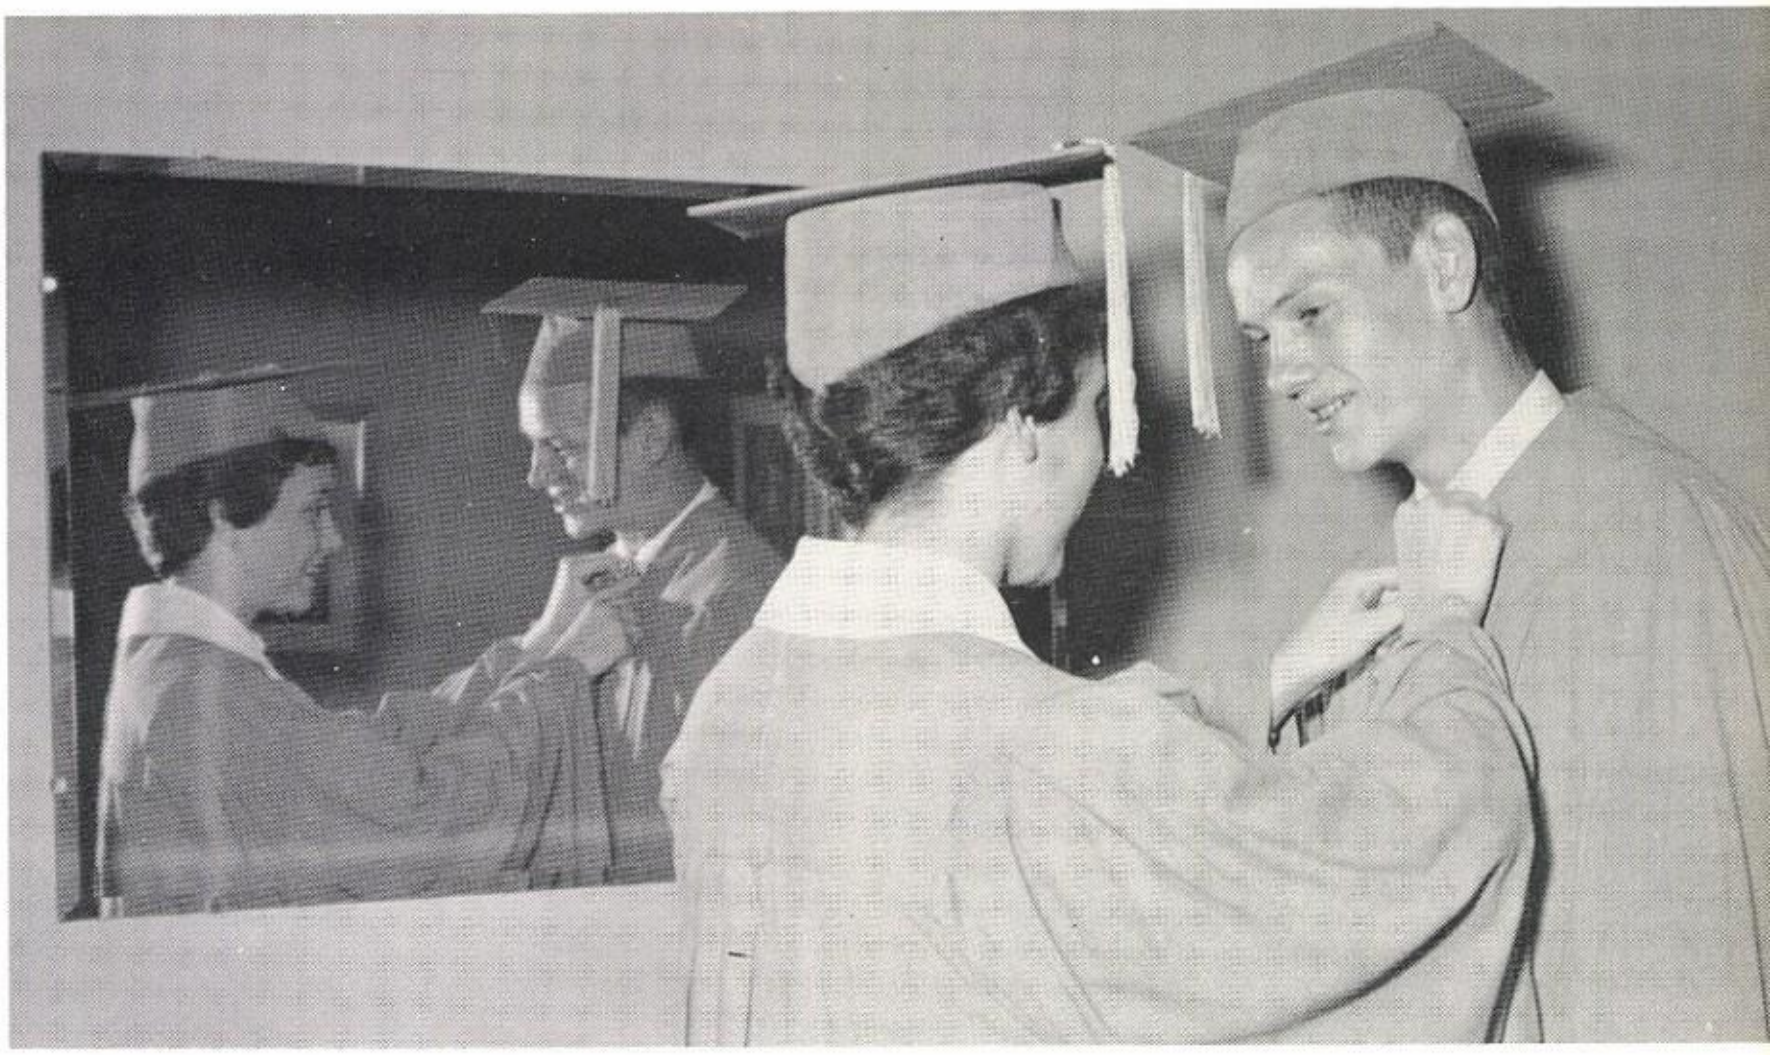
Pat could have danced all night — almost did.

LAST MILE FOR SENIORS

Long lay the commencement aisle ahead . . . the tassel on his cap brushed his cheek . . . "Which one of us will fall flat getting his diploma? . . . Golly, these gowns are hot . . . strange that another class will walk in our steps . . ."

The last step was taken . . . and he knew that a way of life was over . . .

"Walk on, walk on . . . with hope in your heart . . . and you'll never walk alone . . . you'll never walk alone."



Cheryl Wiley and Stanley Howton — with their eyes right on a bright future.

Anxious seniors looking at the latest things in rings.

Highlighting the Music Revue was Harrisburg's own dance band.

HIGH LIGHTS AT H.T.H.S.

The Music Revue was really a great success this year! Being the most pleasurable project of the band, the students associated with the band worked hard to make this the best production in a long time. The results, in the form of proceeds, took the junior and senior band members on a trip to gala New Orleans!

The theme song, "Moonlight Serenade," began a program of 28 numbers, all of which supported the theme, "Jazz Festival." The audience enjoyed every spectacular moment of the music supplied by the members of the dance band and various vocal artists. The side-splitting skits kept them in tears of laughter! The dancing of the Charleston brought back many fond memories to some members of the audience, and they were intrigued by the original "Harem Dance" and the unique, authentic costumes worn by the girls.

Blending harmoniously are Laura Hamilton, Susi Lambert, and Lydia Anne Rice . . . "The Eligibles."

Carol Butler, Laura Hamilton, Susi Lambert, Mary Gray, Nancy Bramlet, and Mary Gibbs get set for a dance routine.

MUSIC REVUE

ROSEMARIE GARAVALIA

Dancing the Charleston are Suellen Roper, Miki Gooch, Mary Gray, Jackie Vaughn, and Laura Hamilton.

"Act well your part; there all the honor lies."

RUSHING TO ORGANIZATIONS . . .

Rita Edwards, Advisor Mrs. Hunter, Linda Disney.

The Keystone Staff hopes you enjoy your 1959 - 1960 yearbook. It's been a lot of work — and fun — planning your book. Mrs. Hunter, in her first year as advisor, should be congratulated for her patience and help. Linda Disney and Rita Edwards, senior co-editors, have worked long and hard, planning the layout of the dummy and the final copy. Junior co-editors, Karen Ozment and Mary Jo Bynum, have mostly watched and learned the "tricks of the trade" for next year's annual. Ed Miller, Sue Lambert, and Stanley Beck were our associate editors; Ed was our photographer, and Sue was our typist. These people make up our staff and join together to bring you what they hope is your greatest book ever.

The Student Council at H.T.H.S. is one of the most important organizations, for it is the student governing body. This group, which is sponsored by Mr. Bauman, is an active service organization.

In addition to the routine tasks, the Student Council carries out many beneficial projects for the school. This group sponsors College Day and selects the lyceum programs. On Government Day the members help in the county and city offices to learn the scope of the local government's functioning.

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are four of the cardinal qualities of the members of the National Honor Society. Each year the faculty rate the members from the upper ten percent of the class according to these traits. The chosen students are required to maintain their high standing throughout the duration of their membership.

Our local chapter was organized in 1946 and has consistently held its prestige among the school body.

HI-TRI

The Hi-Tri, under the very capable leadership of Mrs. Helen Dunn and Miss Betty Foust, is an organization for all the girls in school.

Throughout the year, the Hi-Tri presented numerous activities for the enjoyment of its members. Included among these was the formal initiation, when the freshman girls interested in joining became official members. Preceding the initiation was the annual Hi-Tri Mother-Daughter Banquet. Other events during the year were the Twirp Dance and the state conferences attended by many members.

The Hi-Tri serves as a philanthropic organization which, during the Christmas season, distributed baskets of food to needy families.

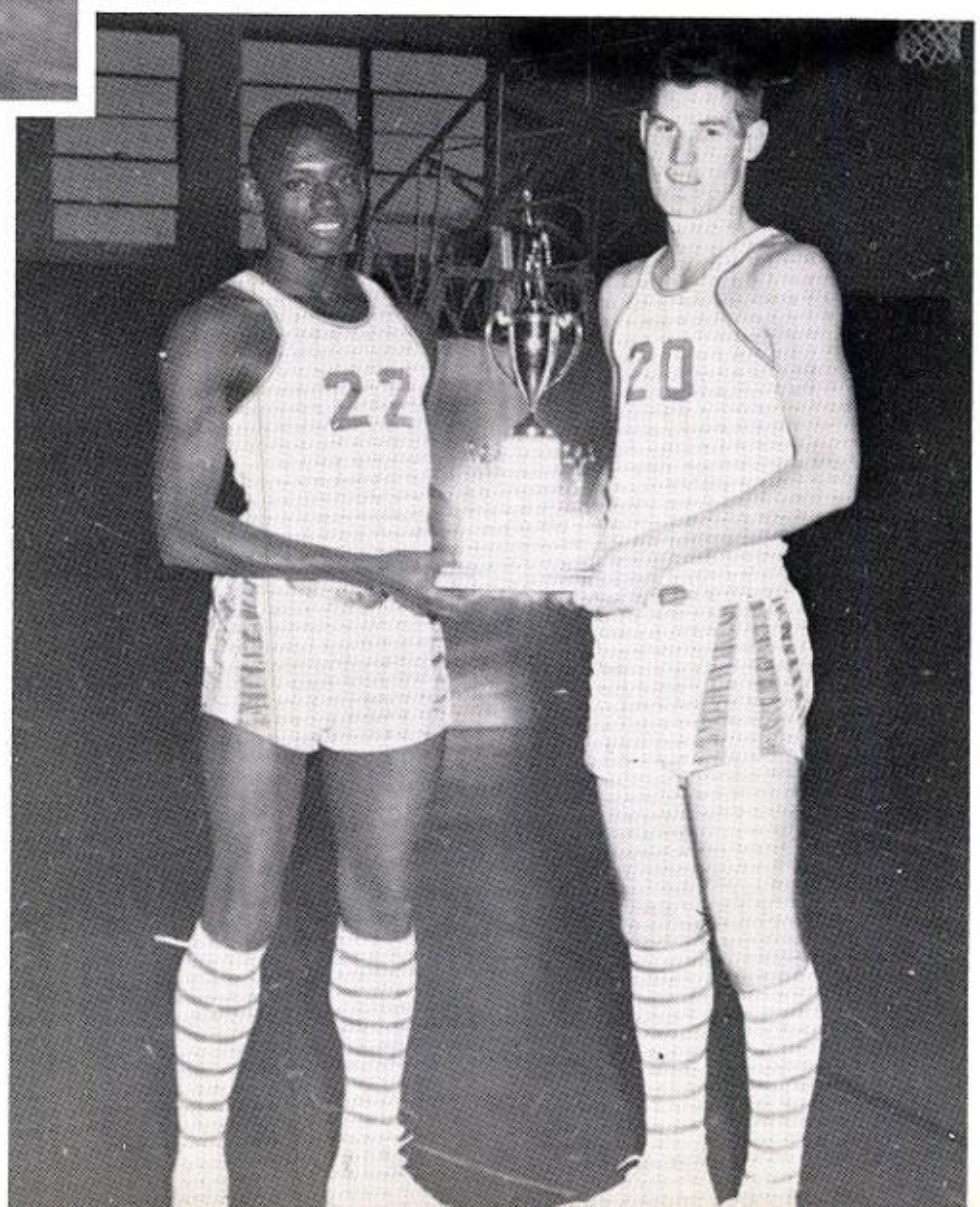
Co-captains displaying Egyptian Holiday Tournament trophy.



The varsity basketball squad of 1959-1960 at Harrisburg Township High School will never be forgotten. The Bulldogs opened the season against Ziegler and came out with a victory. Then the squad went to Marion for a conference game and came through with another win. Carrier Mills was then defeated by the Bulldogs on their own floor. During the Egyptian Holiday Tournament at West Frankfort, the Bulldogs proved to be quite victorious until they came up against Mt. Vernon. Even though the Bulldogs did not win first, we were very proud of the second place trophy. The season continued with many wins. At the close of the season everyone agreed that each game was a thriller whether we won or lost.

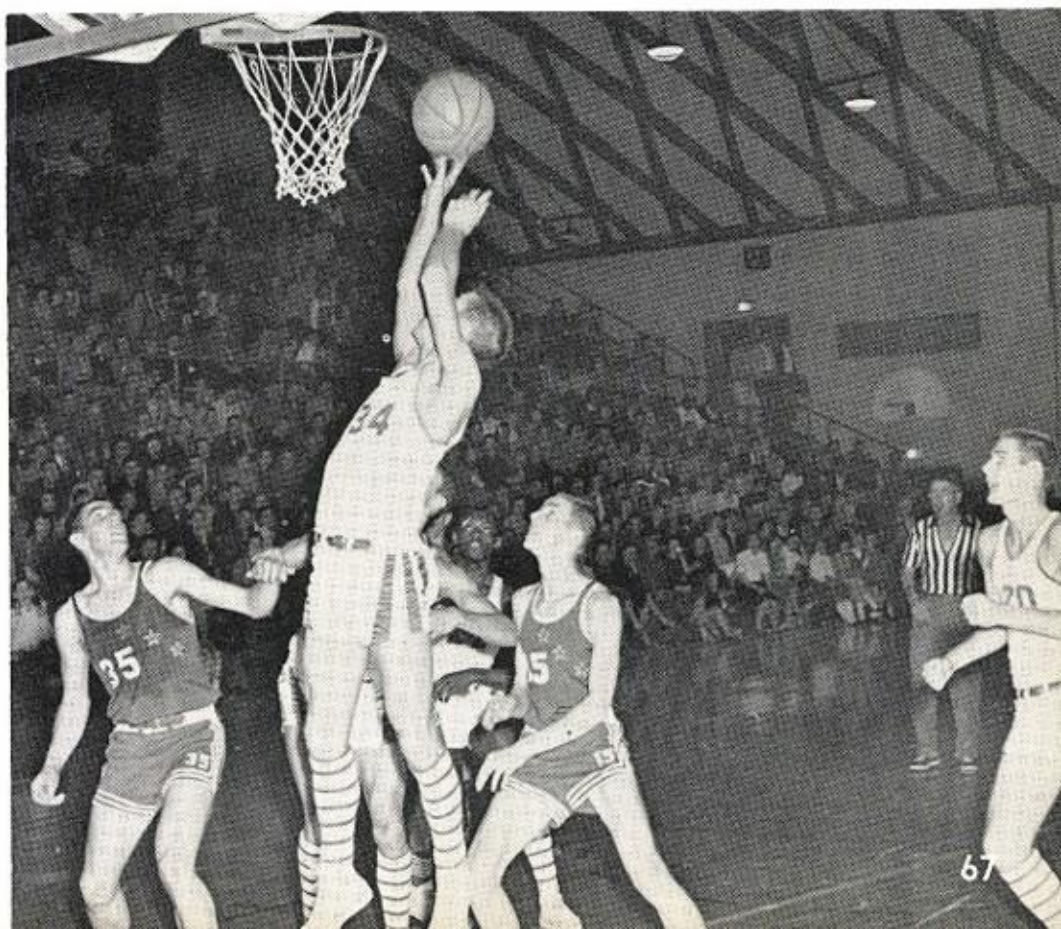
Carl Shelton's high jumping was a great asset to the Bulldogs throughout the year.

Each year the schools of Saline County sponsor a polio drive. During the County Tournament, the queens from the different schools present the checks to Mr. "Stopper" Adams, director of the polio drive. The H.T.H.S. queen for 1959 -1960 was Miss Karen Groves.



Going up for a shot is Bob Karnes, varsity substitute, who saw considerable action this year.

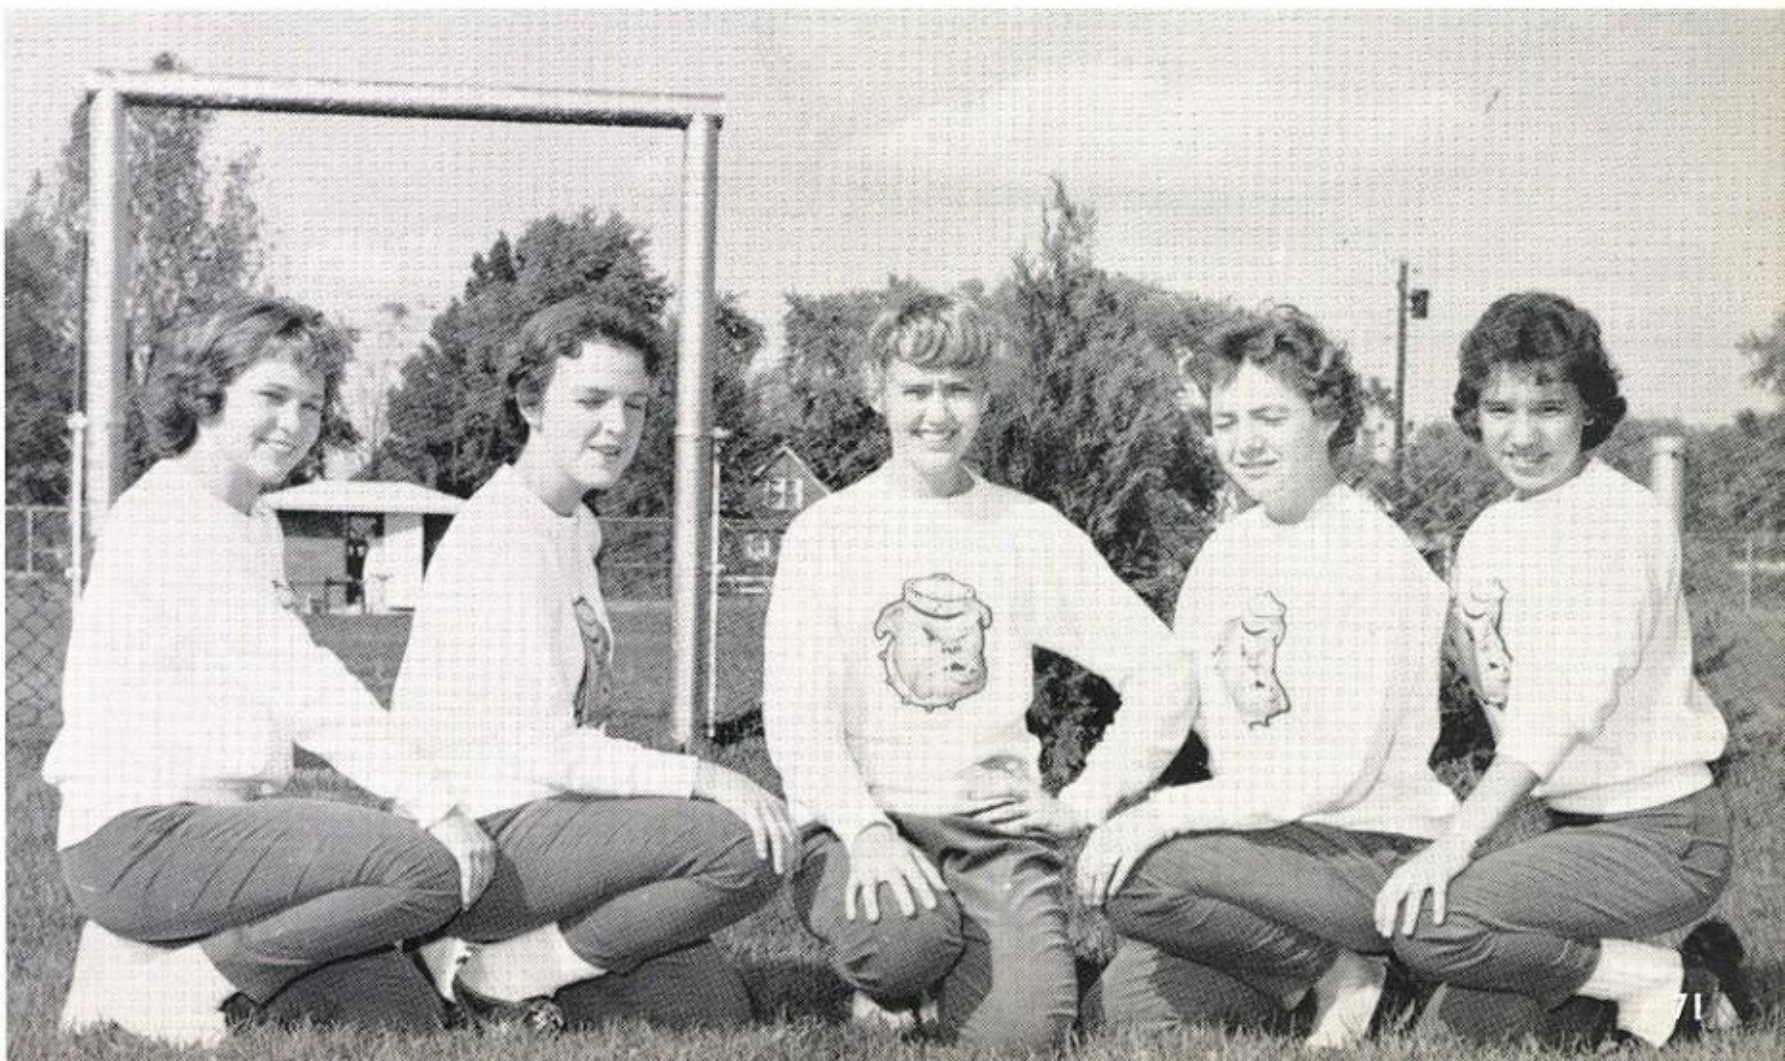
VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

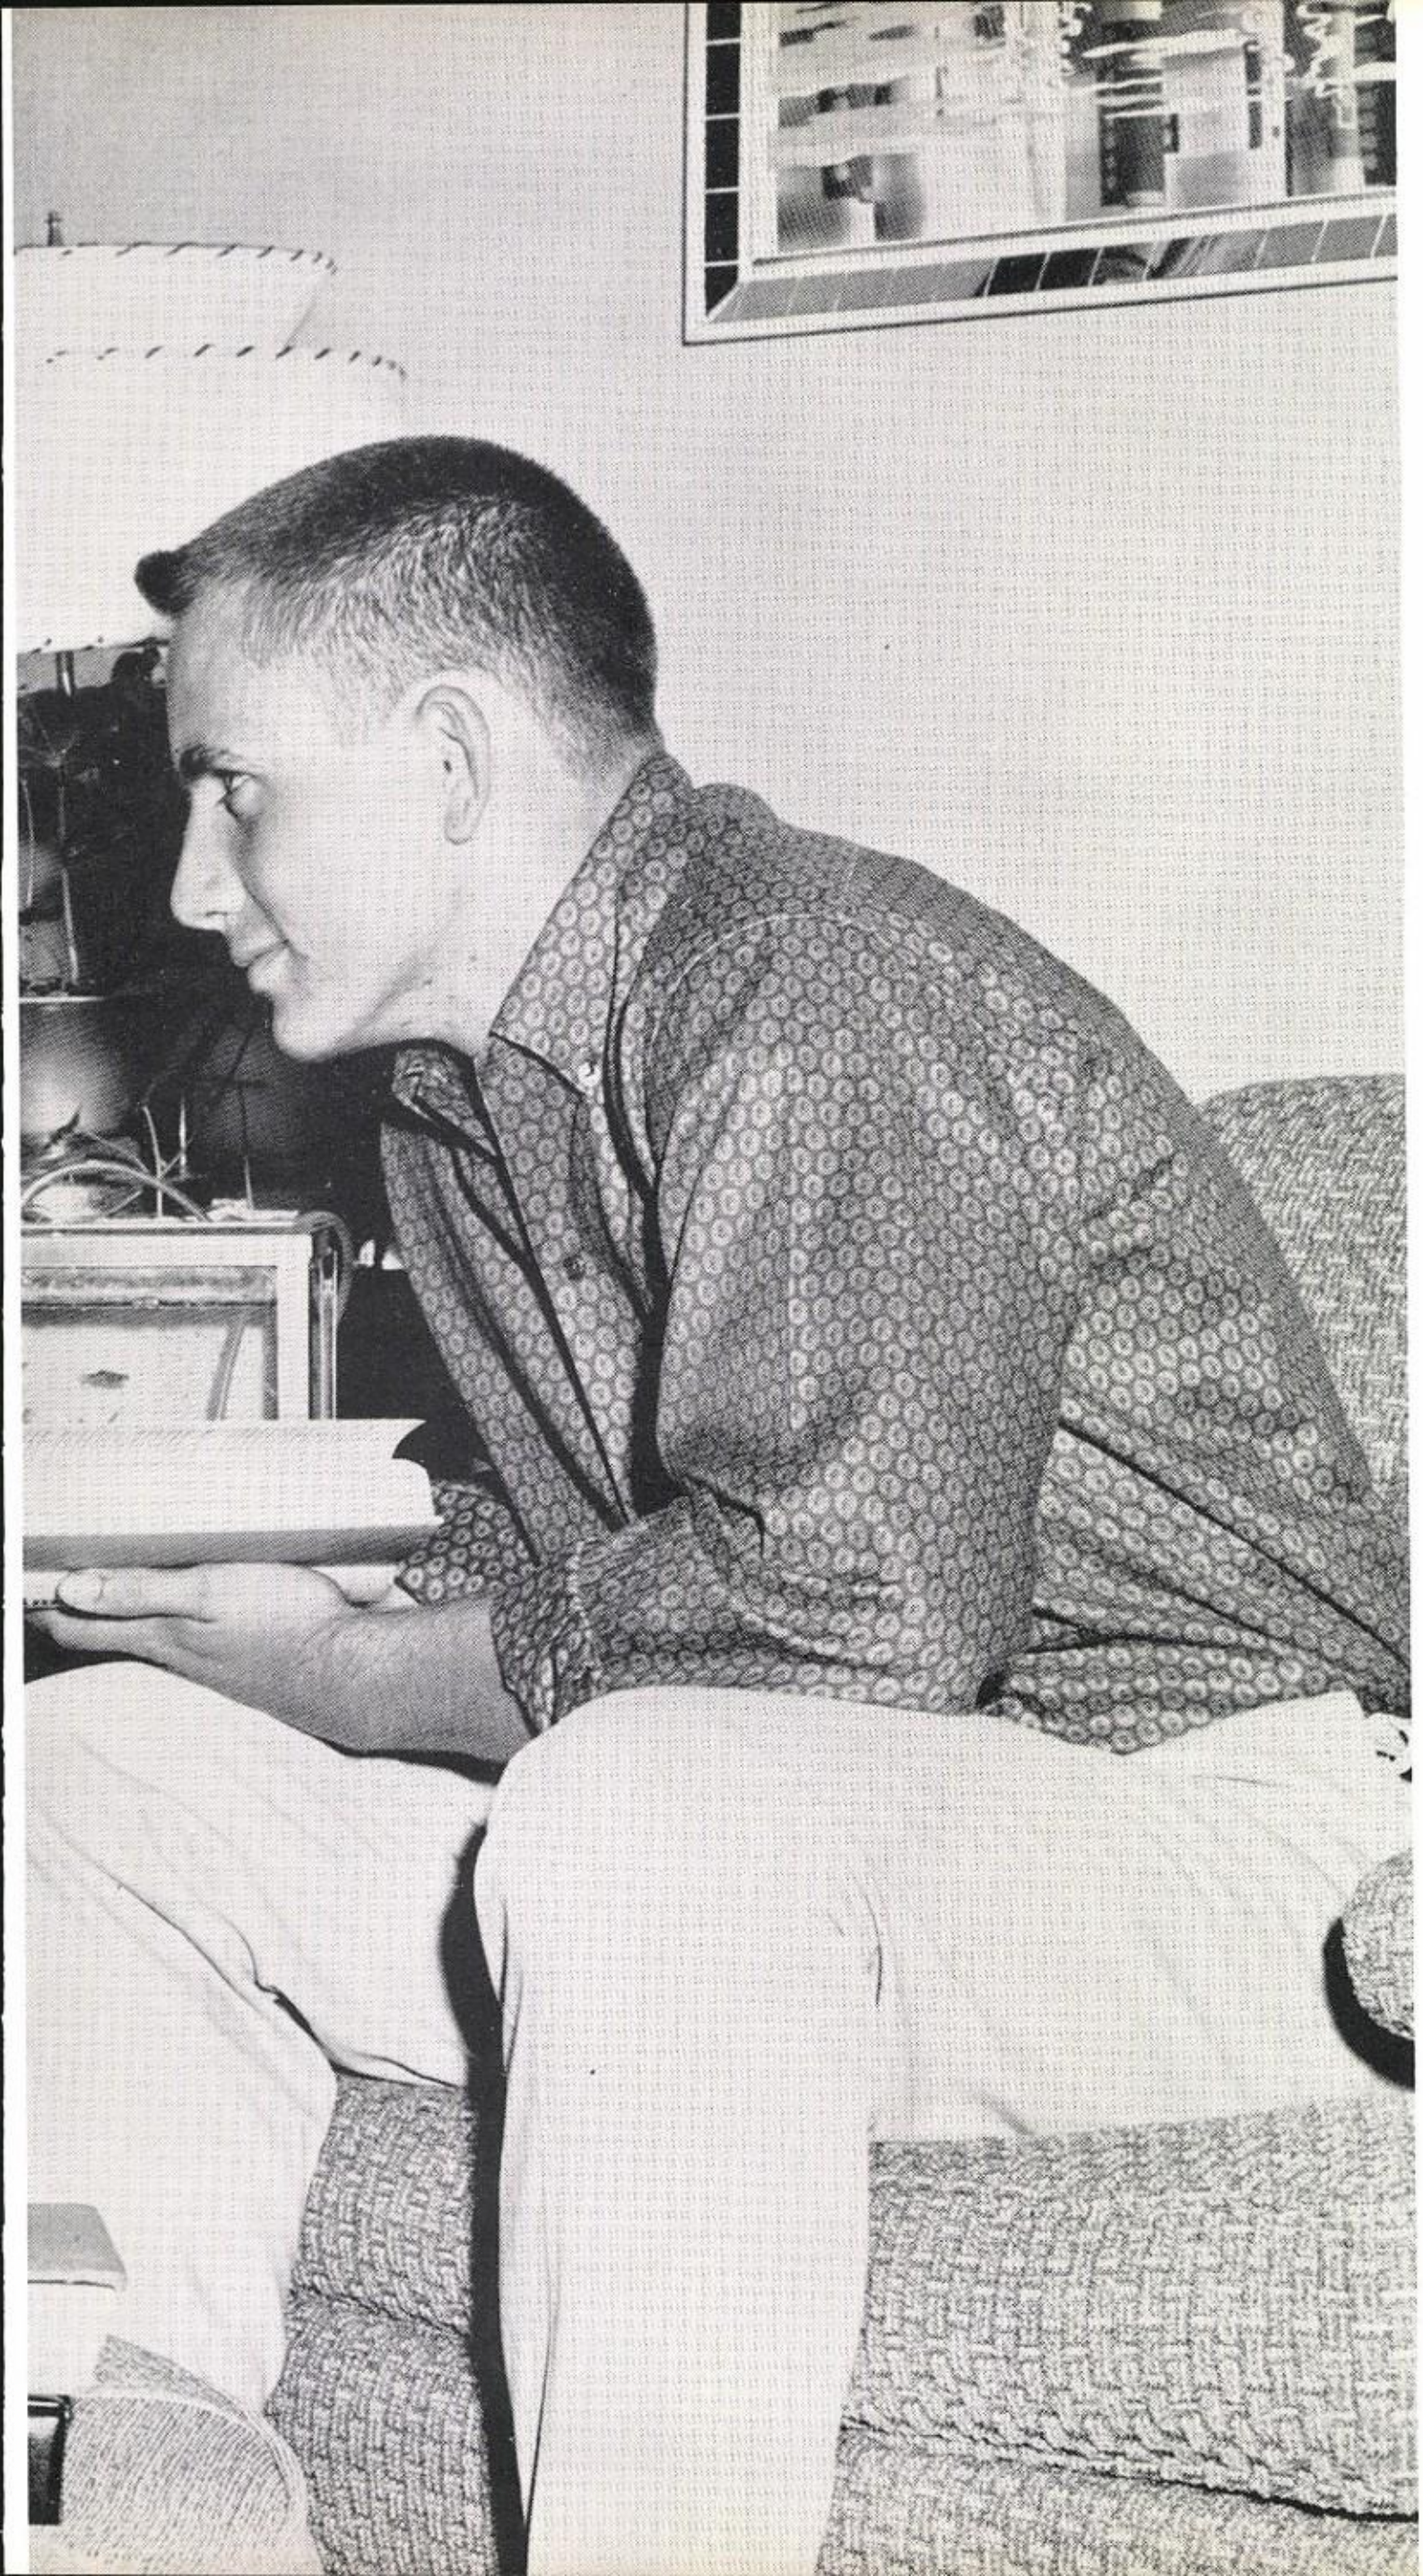
Through thick and thin, they help us win! That's why we're so proud of our cheerleaders. They practice long and hard to perfect new yells to teach the fans. In all kinds of weather, during basketball and football seasons, they are always there to cheer our boys on.

Sophomore cheerleaders are: Linda Nolen, Jill Lasersohn, Kathy Morris, Sharron Ramsey, and Nancy Edward.

BULLPUP CHEERLEADERS

Freshman cheerleaders are: Loretta Shelford, Sharon O'Neal, Carol Logsdon, Dianne Ingram, and Jan Brantley.





MEETING THE PEOPLE . . .

PRINCIPAL ELTIS HENSON
B.S., M.A. in Ed. Murray State College; Other Graduate work, George Peabody College.

The students express their respect and gratitude to Mr. Eltis Henson, principal of Harrisburg Township High School. For the past years, he has endeared himself to the students and to the community through his cheery greetings, his sincerity of purpose, and his encouragement for achievement.

Mr. Paul Endicott, Mr. Harvey Devar, Mr. Alfred Johnson, Dr. Warren Tuttle, Dr. W. J. Blackard, Mr. Bert Gaskins, Mr. Ed Brantley.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The busiest men seem to be the most willing to take on added responsibilty. At least this seems true of our Board of Education. These men take time out of their busy everyday activities to serve our school and to see that it is run smoothly. Realizing the sacrifices of our members, we, the students of Harrisburg Township High School, take this opportunity to express our gratitude.

SENIOR CLASS

What is a senior? According to Webster, he is a person who is more advanced in dignity, rank or office—the elder.

By showing their respect to the "top brass," freshmen acknowledged the definition of the more advanced in rank.

Sophomores longed to be in their shoes, and juniors were envious of the one-year jump that they had on them.

When diplomas were handed out, seniors began reminiscing about the wonderful times they had as well as the embarrassing—the laughs, dressy dances, homework, problems with friends, tough courses, football frays, and basketball battles.

All of these have helped seniors stamp out their greatness at H.T.H.S. and will greatly aid them in the years to come.

We have always heard that our senior year would be the best one of all, and—miracles of all miracles—it is. We've done all the things that seniors by tradition must do, and a few new ones. At this moment, we believe that we shall never forget our first assembly, football season, the dances, the slumber parties, and the thrill of being an upperclassman. We shall cherish forever those last five minute get-to-gethers before commencement.

Seemingly enjoying themselves, Coletta Ferrell, Reggie Blades, and Larry Baldwin are holding a final noon hour "jam session."

Dick Hilliard, George Pavelonis, Elizabeth Tanner, Judy Gidcumb.

JUNIOR CLASS

We, the jolly juniors of Harrisburg Township High School, have finally reached the lower half of the upper class. Without our help the school year would not have been as successful as it was. Our play, "Home Sweet Homicide," gave everyone a delightful evening of entertainment; and the junior class float, which made up a part of the annual Homecoming Parade, helped make the parade more colorful. Besides these activities, the junior class gave the seniors an evening to remember by honoring our upperclassmen with the Junior-Senior Prom. Success in everything we try to do, is our goal for next year.
